- Adolescents from the age of 16 and up with a verbal agreement from a parent or legal guardian can go climbing without adult supervision

Restriction of admittance to climb on the ropes course

The ropes course is open to anyone, as long as said person doesn't suffer from any physical or mental impairment, which could endanger him- or herself or a third party while climbing. Persons under influence of alcohol, drugs or strong medication, or persons suffering from dizziness are prohibited from climbing.

The maximum weight is 120 kg.

Clothing / jewellery

Deposit valuables and other hard objects or put them into a closable pocket of your jacket or trousers. The wearing of open shoes, skirts, earrings, necklaces, bracelets and scarves is prohibited. Long hair has to be tied together. For safety reasons it is prohibited to use one's mobile phone while climbing.

Climbing gear

The climbing harness is to be controlled by the park staff every time after you put it on. Climbing with your own gear is forbidden. It is mandatory to wear snugly fitting gloves with whole fingers to prevent injuries (no knitted gloves). Smoking, peeing, trips to the bathroom, and residing by the fire in climbing gear is prohibited.

Please remove the climbing harness back at the main building - the staff is happy to help out.

Instruction

For all climbers (except for holders of annual tickets) from the age of 6 ("Kids") and older, climbing through the training course under the supervision of the rope park staff is mandatory. The staff's instruction is to be followed.

Time frame for climbing / Time-Slot

At the end of your time-slot, please bring the climbing gear back to the main building without us having to remind you.

Codex of behaviour

We have to watch out for our own safety and that of our co-climbers. The climbing gear and nature must be treated with respect. Jumping and swinging around on the ropes courses is forbidden. To avoid ticks and to protect plants and root systems, please stay on the paths.

Premature return

If rules are broken or instructions given by the staff aren't heeded, one must return one's gear prematurely.

If there's a (thunder-)storm, the park may be closed for security reasons. In both cases there is no compensation of entry fees.

Responsibility

The use of the ropes course is bound with risks and is to be taken on at one's own risk. Insurance is the responsibility of the climber. If the rules or instructions of the staff are ignored, the Seilpark & Adventurepark Zürich- Kloten GmbH refuses any responsibility. The place of jurisdiction is Kloten.
